

Every day the story of your students' lives is being written,
and what they do with their lives can affect eternity.

*What is their story? What are they living for?
What will people say about them?*

Bring your 6th-12th graders to Youth EnCounter this year so they can see how their individual stories connect with the greater story of God.

Teenagers will leave knowing that their lives are intimately tied to a greater story –
The Story of Jesus Christ – and they will understand how to share that gospel story with others!

BRENT GAMBRELL

Brent is certainly one of the most unique men you will ever meet. Although he was saved at the age of nine, he walked away from his commitment and pursued a lifestyle of popularity, power, and wealth. In addition to the money, alcohol, drugs, and sexuality were very much a part of the lifestyle Brent was leading.

However, now Brent's life is a testimony of what God can do in a life that is surrendered. Passionately teaching, his animated style combines laughter and truth to bring God's grace to life using humor to break down walls, allowing God to speak to your heart. Since 1990, he has been traveling full-time, ministering to students, singles groups, and churches across this country.

SETH FRANCO

In the seventh grade Seth Franco wrote an essay stating that he wanted to be a professional basketball player and a preacher one day. He has been living that dream. In October of 2003, Seth became the first Caucasian Harlem Globetrotter since 1942!

THOMAS BROWN, WORSHIP LEADER

Thomas is the Pastor of Worship at New Century Community Church in Roanoke, VA. Thomas has shared his walk of life with many incredible friends and musicians, and those who will help and encourage him. His favorite verse is Philippians 1:21: "For me to live is Christ and to die is gain."
